

Ildi Wiley is President of Results Continuum Incorporated, a consulting and training firm specializing in business development, leadership and team development. Their goal is simple: develop great leaders, team and process that give your business the only competitive advantage that has stood the test of time: unmatched levels of service. Ildi is a trainer, facilitator, strategic coach and business consultant who works with companies ranging in size from 3 to 3000 employees, assisting leaders and teams to achieve business success through increasing employee engagement levels, service standards and workforce development. On any given day, she can be found facilitating one to multi-day training sessions, working along side CEOs, managers and teams to closely examine and bravely challenge their processes, standards and team brand. Ildi's work accounts for measurable results in leadership and team behaviours, increased revenue and reputation, brand development and simply making team and departments and great places to work.

Under Ildi's leadership, Results Continuum has serviced over 200 of clients in the pharmaceutical, hospitality, educational, financial, transportation and health care fields across Canada over the last 18 years. During this time, Ildi has spearheaded the company's remarkable growth, expanding its services to include a national two-day conference, the Women in Leadership and Business Conference. This conference is dedicated to advancing women executives and entrepreneurs by advancing their career and growing their business and is the first of its kind in Canada.

Ildi is perhaps best known for her expertise in leadership development and team dynamics. This stems from her extensive work training leaders, teams and groups to achieve business success by focusing on these often overlooked but crucial areas of business operations. Ildi is also a widely sought after speaker and trainer at professional and charitable events, known for her straightforward approach and dynamic, interactive facilitation style that incorporates the perfect blend of practical information, easy-to-remember tips and humor.

Ildi combines her BA in Sociology with 20 years of practical experience in the training and educational development field to bring her clients the best content and most advanced practices. She is certified in over seven personality assessment tools including the Myers-Briggs Type indicator, Personality Dimensions and the Strong Interest Inventory.

Ildi was awarded the Top 40 Under 40 for her entrepreneurial and community accomplishments, recognized as a runner-up in the 2008 Niagara Women in Business Award and nominate for the RBC/Women of Influence's Entrepreneur of the Year Award in 2011 and 2012.
